

DOCOMOMO INTERNATIONAL

- Founded in 1988 at the Technical University in Delft, The Netherlands
- Presently includes over 53 national and regional working parties and more than 2,300 members worldwide.
- The International Secretariat office was in Delft until 2000, in Paris through 2009 and in Barcelona from 2010 forward.
- The organization is governed by an elected Executive Committee with representation from each national chapter.
- DOCOMOMO International publishes the biannual periodical DOCOMOMO Journal—the only international periodical devoted to current events and recent research on the Modern Movement.
- International Specialist Committees (ISCs) composed of recognized experts organize technical seminars and consolidate expertise.
- The International Secretariat organizes an international DOCOMOMO conference held every two years.
- DOCOMOMO International assists UNESCO, the World Heritage Center, ICOMOS, IUA and other organizations in compiling lists of cultural properties to be protected.

Fundació Mies van der Rohe
calle Provença 318 pral 2
ESP-08037 Barcelona
p 34 932151011
f 34 934883685
docomomo@miesbcn.com

<http://www.docomomo@miesbcn.com>

Ana Tostões, chair
tostoes@miesbcn.com
Ivan Blasi, secretary
blasi@miesbcn.com

DOCOMOMO US

- DOCOMOMO US is the working party of DOCOMOMO International in the United States. It is a union of state/regional chapters. There are currently ten chapters.
- Founded as the Working Party for the United States in 1995, DOCOMOMO US developed its present organizational structure in 1997.
- DOCOMOMO US is a 501(c)3 corporation incorporated in California.
- Its 15-person Board of Directors represents diverse interests and geographical regions.
- The US working party publishes a biannual newsletter, adminstrates membership and serves as an umbrella organization for state/regional chapters.

DOCOMOMO US
P.O. Box 230977
New York, NY 10023

info@docomomo-us.org
docomomo.us@gmail.com
<http://www.docomomo-us.org>

Theo Prudon, president